THE JOINT LEASE.

Labors of the Portland Committee in New York.

THE CONCEPTION OF VILLARD.

A Concise Statement of the Situation and of the Reasons Presented and Promises Made by Those Interested.

Special dispatch from the Editor of The Oregonian

NEW YORK March 27—The committee from Portland found on arrival a somewhat different situation in regard to the joint lease than they had anticipated. They found that the joint lease was the conception and largely the work of Villard. It was he who obtained the assent to the lease of the several parties in interest one after another. President Adams of the Union Pacific at first opposed a joint lease, and President Harris of the Northern Pacific still professes indifference to it. Villard says his object in bringing it about was to prevent a war of rates which would be highly injurious and probably disastrous to all the roads. Adams says also that only through the accommodation of the proposed joint lease can war be averted; that the roads are not in a condition to wage such war, and that a contest would throw them into bankruptcy one after another.

Elijah Smith however, believes that the O R & N could abide the issue. He is almost the only man we find here who is not committed to the policy of a joint lease.

The Northern Pacific some months ago was in sore straits for money to meet obligations incurred in building the Cascade branch. Villard came to its rescue at a time when it could scarcely have found other resources. Through him funds amounting to seven or eight millions were supplied, and a crisis avoided. He states, however, that his own personal interests in the O R & N are larger than in any of the other roads, but his relations to them all made it exceedingly desirable, from his standpoint, to keep peace between them. To this end a joint lease was advised.

The Portland committee presented fully their objection to the joint lease. Villard and Adams thought there would be no difficulty in removing part of these objections at once and stated their belief that within a reasonable time it could be and would be removed. It was agreed at once that the O R & N would undertake to reduce its charges on the lower river and bar so as to place shipments from the Columbia river substantially on a basis with shipments from Puget sound. To this end tug and towage service on the bar and river are to be undertaken and maintained by the O R & N, not only as a necessary thing for the relief of Columbia river commerce, but also for the protection of traffic on the O R & N railway and steamship lines. Tugs for this service are to be provided and maintained and rates are to be such as will protect commerce and no more than will maintain the undertaking.

The objection of the Portland directors to the policy that will separate the line of the O R & N north of Snake river from lines south of that stream are not removed. The joint lease will give up the territory north of the Snake river to the Northern Pacific. The Palouse branch will be turned over to the Northern Pacific which will operate it and pay the rental thereof, but the joint lease provides in express terms that traffic to and from points north of Snake river and west of Pend d'Oreille lake from and to Portland or Tacoma shall be free to take either route, the O R & N or the Northern to tide water, the shorter or more direct route for such traffic originating at or destined to Portland being by the line of the Oregon company. It is agreed that all freight destined to or originating at any point between Snake river and Pend d'Oreille lake or on any future tributaries of the main line or the Northern including the Columbia & Palouse road, and branches from or to Portland shall unless specially or otherwise consigned be transported on the line of the Oregon company and no inducement or efforts shall be made to divert such traffic from the Oregon line.

The Portland committee also presented the question of ore rates asking that mileage rates for ore should be made the same north, east and west. This it was answered was a traffic question, which could not be solved without consultation with the traffic management, but it was stated that the subject would be taken into consideration. Mr Adams said he was confident it would be granted by the Union Pacific and the O R & N and Mr Villard said he would endeavor to bring it about with the Northern Pacific.

Adams expressed an earnest desire that the joint lease be consummated, believing that the roads under such arrangement could do better for the development of the country as well as for their own interest than in any other way. He said he wished it settled as speedily as possible and upon settlement of it would press the construction of branches in the Northwest to the extent of the expenditure of eight to ten million dollars.

The executive board of the Oregon company at a meeting held yesterday, authorized an issue of two millions of bonds in response to an offer of Villard's friends in Germany for four millions. These bonds will be used for the construction of branches, probably from Willow Creek to Heppner through Eureka Flat and along Snake river.

None of the parties to the joint lease seem to suppose it a valid and binding legal contract. It is in the nature of an effort to secure an amicable working arrangement between the several roads. It can hardly bear any severe strain or conflict of interests and therefore is not likely to be permanent. To us the various interests appear irreconcilable but Villard thinks they can be harmonized and made to work fairly together. As promoter of the joint lease he said he wants a little time to work out his plans and carry them to success.

The members of the Portland committee have gained a good deal of inside information by their visit here. They believe their coming will, in some very important respects, lead to good results. At the same time they would prefer that the Union Pacific and Oregon roads would adhere to and pursue their course of action and development keeping out of combination with the others, but whenever this statement is made it is met by the objection that unless such agreement between the roads is reached there will be a disastrous railroad war which neither the roads nor the country can afford.

At present we see nothing to do but to await developments. Some of our party go to Washington to-night. All will return home as soon as possible.

IMPORTANT LAND SUIT

Involving Title to Millions of Acres in Texas

AUSTIN Tex March 27—The attorney general has instituted proceedings against the Galveston Harrisburg & San Antonio Railroad Company and against the Texas portion of the Southern Pacific system to recover land claimed by the company in Kinney county. The state constitution of 1876 set aside one half the public domain for public school purposes and the legislature next year passed a law requiring locators of certificates to survey alternate sections for schools. Under the act millions of acres have been surveyed and sold. The attorney general insists that this law is distinct and separate from the constitutional provision and he contends that the state is entitled to one half of all lands located under the law in addition to the constitutional half. This is a test case and will be far reaching in its effect as title to millions of acres of Texas lands will depend upon the result.

TELEPHONES

Number in Use in the United States and What They Bring to the Bell Company

BOSTON March [illegible]—The report of the Bell Telephone Company shows a satisfactory condition of business during the year 1887. The number of exchanges is [illegible]43; total miles wire 145,[illegible], of which 8,000 are under ground; number of subscribers 158,[illegible]2; number of instruments on hand and under rental 380,[illegible]; an increase of 26,7[illegible] over last year; number of exchange connections daily in the United States estimated at 1,0[illegible]1,617. The treasurer's statement shows: Earnings from all sources $[illegible]; expenses $1,2[illegible]; dividends during the year 18 per cent on the capital stock; surplus December 31 $[illegible].

A POLITICAL PARADOX

Mayor Hewitt Second Choice of the Leader of Tammany Hall

NEW YORK March 27—In making an estimate of Mayor Hewitt's chances for the presidential nomination it is well to consider the controlling elements in New York state politics. New York city and Brooklyn when combined in the state [illegible] are a most [illegible] in the coming state convention [illegible] of [illegible] and the county democracy [illegible] recognized. Tammany has no single undisputed leader since John Kelly's death, although Richard Crocker comes nearest to it and he is an entirely devoted adherent of Mayor Hewitt. Crocker said the other day "If Mr Cleveland is not the choice of the national convention then Mr Hewitt certainly will be." The acknowledged leader of the county democracy is Maurice J Power and he said "The impression among leading democrats the county over seems to be that Cleveland will be renominated, but if that should not turn out to be so there ought to be no question as to whom the New York delegation should support. The man is Abram S Hewitt." It will thus be seen that in the metropolis organized democracy is strongly disposed to substitute Hewitt for Gov Hill as their next choice after Cleveland.

THE LARD SENSATION

Bartle Refuses to Talk About His Statements at Washington.

ST LOUIS March 27—W G Bartle has returned to this city and late last night was seen by a reporter regarding his testimony given before the congressional committee investigating the manufacture of lard at Washington.

He replied "I have been misrepresented but the time has not arrived for me to set the public right. Indeed I must decline to make any statement at all."

"You have heard of the sensation your evidence created in this city."

"Yes but here is still further evidence forthcoming that will create more of a sensation than all that has been published as my evidence. I am surprised that my testimony should have been given out for publication when that of others equally as damaging has never been made public."

A SEATTLE MAN IN TROUBLE

Arrested in Vermont on a Charge of Bigamy—A Wife East and a Wife West

ST ALBANS Vt March 27—Last January a stranger signing himself G A Hall of Seattle W T came here on business, during which he married a pretty young girl from a neighboring town of Georgia. The courtship was brief and after the wedding they settled down here and have lived here very happily since. Yesterday afternoon Hall was arrested for bigamy, upon advices from Seattle that he had deserted his wife and child there. The town clerk of that place says he was suing for divorce with poor success when he left. His young wife has become broken down by the disgrace. His Seattle wife will be brought east to appear against him.

EASTERN NEWS ITEMS.

COMPLETE CHANGE OF MANAGEMENT

NEW YORK March 27—It was reported to-day that there was to be an entire change among the directors of the Panama Canal Company. Investigation showed that the directors of the Panama Railroad Company were referred to and not the canal company. The annual meeting of the railroad company will be held next Monday and the entire board, with the exception of R W Thompson, the vice president will resign. Gen Newton of the board of public works of this city will be, it is reported, the next president.

J G McCullough, now president of the road says his reason for withdrawing is that he requires more time for his private and other interests. He declares that the road is in excellent condition. The annual report for 1887 which will be submitted at the meeting Monday next, shows gross earnings $3,4[illegible]3,552; expenditures, including interest $2,848,751.

Relief can be obtained only by cutting down the tariff rates which now forbid the importation of refined sugars."

OREGON FARES WELL.

Oregon rivers and harbors fared better than ever before. Yaquina, one of the most meritorious improvements on the Pacific coast which received but $[illegible] 000 in 1886 and $60 000 in 1887 now gets $120 000, and so on all through the list. Coos bay which received but $2[illegible] 000 in the bill of 1887 now gets $50 000; the improvement at the Cascades which had but $50 000 in the bill of 1887 now gets $1[illegible]5 000, and the mouth of the Columbia which in 1886 had $1[illegible]0 000, and in 1887 $3[illegible]0 000 now gets $[illegible]0 000. It must however be remembered that the bill of 1887 was not passed.

Representative Thompson of California the only member of the committee on rivers and harbors from the Pacific coast, may well be proud of the success which he has achieved. The river and harbor bill is one of the most important for the Pacific coast and that section of the country receives more in the bill than it ever did in any other.

There has also been secured the insertion in the river and harbor bill of an item of $150 000 for deep moorings on the Pacific north of San Francisco. This improvement was urged by coastwise mariners and also by marine insurance companies. The coastwise shipping has suffered both in delays and wreckage from severe storms which occur frequently on the coast. These moorings are intended to be refuges from these storms and will afford great security to coastwise vessels.

The bill also contains provision for the survey of the Eel river and Klamath river in California including bars at the entrance to each.

SENATE

WASHINGTON March 27—The presiding officer laid before the senate a communication from the marshal of the supreme court inviting the senate by direction of the justices to attend the funeral ceremonies of the late Chief Justice Waite in the hall of the house of representatives at noon to-morrow. The invitation was accepted.

Dolph offered a resolution which was adopted calling on the secretary of the treasury for information as to the necessity for fortifications in Puget sound, and as to the practicability of fortifying the entrance to the Sound.

Blair called up the question of the second reading of the bill introduced by him to give the preference to disabled Confederate soldiers as between men who were disloyal in appointments to civil office.

Edmunds opposed the second reading of the bill vigorously and without disposing of the question the senate took up again the house bill to provide for the purchase of U S bonds, the pending question being on an amendment offered by Stewart authorizing the deposit of gold or silver bullion, and the issuance of coin certificates therefor.

Teller addressed the senate applying himself first to the task of refuting the statement that the depreciation of silver was due to its overproduction. He denied that silver had fallen. He knew it would not now buy as much gold as it would buy in 1873. It would buy more wheat, more corn, lard, manufactured goods than it would buy then. It was not because of overproduction that there was such a divergence between silver and gold but it was because of demonetization of silver and of that alone. He disclaimed both for himself and his state any special interest in the silver question. He should have held the same views living in Connecticut as he held living in Colorado. The government had not paid to the miners of Colorado a dollar in subsidy or bounty.

On motion of Sherman a committee of five senators to attend the funeral of the late Chief Justice Waite at Toledo was ordered and Senators Sherman, Allison, Evarts, George and Gray were appointed.

Sherman suggested that in the absence of these senators further action or discussion on the bond bill should be suspended and Hoar asked and obtained unanimous consent to have the senate proceed during the remainder of the week assuming that there would be no business attended to to-morrow and that there would be no session on Good Friday to the consideration of bills on the calendar.

Plumer moved that the bond bill be recommitted to the committee on finance. The motion was entered and will be pending when the bill is taken up again next week.

After an executive session the senate adjourned to meet at 10 A M to-morrow.

HOUSE

WASHINGTON March 27—The speaker laid before the house a communication from the marshal of the supreme court of the United States announcing that the funeral ceremonies of the late chief justice will be held in the hall of the house of representatives at noon to-morrow and inviting all the members to attend. The communication was laid on the table.

The house adopted a resolution of the committee on elections in the case of Post against Worthington, Tenth Illinois district, confirming the right of Post the sitting member.

A bill was reported [illegible] the appropriation for a public building at Los Angeles Cal. Also for the election of senators by the legal voters of the states' calendar.

In consideration of the morning hour the house proceeded to consideration of the Union Pacific railway funding bill. Outhwaite of Ohio chairman of the committee on Pacific railroads opened the discussion of the measure which he thought just and prudent and would secure in a proper manner the amount to be paid to the government. In discussion of the question he said "The house must consider the provisions of the granting acts, amount of security the government had for payment of the debt, and the additional security which the government would obtain under the provisions of the pending bill." He gave a history of the granting act and the Thurman sinking fund. The Thurman act had failed for two reasons. One was that the earnings had continually diminished on account of competition which had grown and extended into the territory of the Pacific roads. The other reason was the government required the sinking fund to be invested in government bonds, preference being given to five per cent bonds. He then gave a brief statement of the well known provisions of the bill.

Pending further discussion, the morning hour expired and the military academy appropriation bill was taken up and passed.

Holman called up the general public land bill.

Smith, of Wisconsin offered an amendment providing that all deposits of coal and iron on lands of the United States shall be reserved to the United States, and no further grant or patents from the United States shall be held to include such deposits. No disposition was made of the amendment and it was left pending.

Felton of California moved to amend by striking out the clause permitting a person who has declared his intention to become a citizen to enter on public lands. The motion was lost.

Payson of Illinois offered an amendment providing that no patent to mineral land issue except to a citizen of the United States. Pending action the house adjourned.

ARGUMENT FOR THE CENTRAL PACIFIC.

WASHINGTON, March 27—The house committee on Pacific railroads this morning listened to the conclusion of the argument of Counsel Tweed of the Central Pacific Company. Tweed cited the decision of the supreme court to the effect that the government has no right as a creditor until the company's debt becomes due and that the only right it had at present was to insure a proper administration of the company's property. This did not mean that it might provide for taking 25 per cent of the net receipts of the company. He did not believe the court would consider that it was a reasonable exercise of administrative power to disable a company from paying its existing obligations, with a view to making provision for a future debt. The Huntington bill providing for the refunding of the Southern Pacific debt Tweed said was acceptable to the Central Pacific Company.

PORTLAND, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 28, 1888.

THE LEASE NEGOTIATION.

Referring to Mr. Scott's telegram concerning the joint lease negotiation at New York, it may be said that the country will find some assurances in the news that the lease is "the conception and largely the work" of Mr. Henry Villard. Confidence in his integrity and in his friendship to our interests is very strong here and there will be general disbelief that he has entered into an engagement designed to damage us. But Mr. Villard, like other men, is fallible, and that in which he may see no danger may in fact involve the most serious consequences All men are blinded more or less by self interest and the proposed combination is avowedly for the protection of Mr Villard's investments But his interests are not our interests, and there are no relations between him and us which make it right for him to demand a sacrifice at our hands.

The proposed modifications of the contract, as outlined in Mr Scott's telegram, mitigate but do not remove the legitimate objections to it. By the pledge concerning service and charges at the Columbia bar and on the rivers between Portland and Astoria, one of the important objections is removed, but the non-committal talk concerning ore rates from Coeur d'Alene is not satisfactory. For the Columbia river basin the combination promises nothing save choice of markets without advantage from competition. The promise in the matter of extension south through Willow creek, into Eureka Flat and into the Clearwater country involves no benefit that is not already fairly in sight and sure to come whether the lease is confirmed or not.

In the absence of fuller information there is nothing to do but to wait. This appears to be the attitude of the Portland committee. They seem in fact to have been silenced but not convinced. It is possible that behind this negotiation there are purposes that we can as yet know nothing of. We can afford to wait with some sort of patience, assured by the knowledge that whatever may be the outcome we have in the law and in the legislative power to regulate railroads resources for our own protection. And, further, in the Columbia river we have the means finally of defeating any arrangement whose object or whose effects may be in violation of justice or detrimental to our general interests.

A VERY SUGGESTIVE STATEMENT

The facts concerning the finances of the state penitentiary, contained in a dispatch from Salem, printed yesterday, are worth more than passing notice. Out of $53,000 appropriated by the last legislature for keeping prisoners and the general expenses of the prison for the ensuing two years, $22,751 54 were expended the first year and $27,795 26 were expended up to March 20, 1888, (at which time Superintendent Clow was removed), leaving the sum of $5204 74 of that fund on which to run the penitentiary for nearly ten months to come. The total ordinary expenses of running the penitentiary for the year 1887 were $31,207 21 against $30,068 70 for the year 1886 Total expenditures, including extraordinary expenses for 1887, were $45,040 08.

The motive of this statement, which though coming from Superintendent Downing, is evidently inspired by Gov Pennoyer, is to explain and excuse the action of the latter in dismissing Mr Clow Newspapers, both democratic and republican, in various parts of the state, have criticised the governor sharply, and he wishes, evidently, to show that the act was not without sufficient and reasonable cause The statement certainly looks bad for Mr Clow, but it is possible that he in turn may be able to make an explanation It has been reported that Mr. Clow was not permitted during his incumbency to exercise the full powers of his office, but that from the beginning he was required to submit to executive dictation. If Mr Clow has any statement to make, the columns of THE OREGONIAN are open to him.

At all events, the facts as exposed in the financial statement do not well support the premises of economy made for and by the democratic administration upon its assumption of office. But then Gov. Pennoyer is not the first good man who has discovered that "the best-laid plans," etc.

GOOD ADVICE

The return of the engineers of the Santa Fe road to their work, the practical refusal of the Milwaukee & St Paul and the Northwestern roads to strike when their engineers decided to raise "the boycott" on "Q." freight is regarded by the Chicago Tribune as leaving the "Q" section of the Brotherhood in a sorry plight. The traffic of the road is in good shape, the attempt on the part of the strikers to boycott the road brought them into conflict with the law and public sentiment, the engineers on the other roads recognized the force of law and the common duty of the railroad managers under the law to handle "Q." freight, and it has ceased to be a matter of serious consequence to the C B & Q. whether the strikers give up or continue the strike.

The Tribune gives the strikers this excellent advice

As the matter now stands the strikers on the "Q" road if they have the intelligence with which they are credited must be aware that their strike is absolutely dead that they cannot influence any any other road to decline handling its freight and that the engineers of the other roads however much they may sympathize with them are not disposed to let their sympathy run away with their sense or interfere with their work and wages They ha[illegible] nothing [illegible] for They [illegible] it them [illegible] to get back [illegible] the road Under [illegible] can be [illegible] terms as the[illegible] they [illegible] there

A leading M[illegible] question [illegible] We want a revision of the tariff [illegible] protection on the manufacturing industries in order to foster a home market for the commodities we produce We do not want free trade and consequent poverty [illegible] in Canada We do not want the national debt paid too quickly we want it funded by [illegible] per cent 50 or 100 year bonds, thus giving our national banks a solid basis We want the surplus expended in improving our waterways, especially the great lake system establishing a permanent fund for such improvement, instead of giving it in piecemeal and necessarily hampering the plans for such work. We want a navy constructed that our nation may not be ashamed of, and harbor protection at New York, San Francisco and other important seaports We want railroads constructed into Mexico and South America, aided by government loans, We want a broad gauge Western man for president, who will grasp these important questions and handle them intelligently"

The Harrisburg Telegraph says that Col. Victor E. Piollet, in a recent speech in the Pennsylvania house of representatives, pictured the wrongs of the farmer in the matter of unjust taxation, and among other things said "Why, look at me! Only the other day I had to pay school tax, and I haven't got a child in school" Col. Frank Mantor the next day, meeting Col. Piollet, said

"I'm very glad to meet you Col. Piollet said Col. Mantor I was in the house last night and sat under the drippings of the sanctuary. I listened to your speech, and as I am a plain spoken man I want to tell you that I differ with you in one part of your argument. You decried taxation without representation You said you paid school tax and hadn't a child at school Now I am almost in the same situation but I don't kick I pay a poor tax and I haven't a relative in the poorhouse."

The river and harbor appropriation bill as reported by the committee provides a larger aggregate than any former bill. It is not likely that it will pass congress without material reductions. There is little danger this year that the president will veto the bill, since we are to have a national election next November.

ANOTHER ROAD FOR SEATTLE.

Indication of Speedy Connection with the Canadian Pacific.

SEATTLE, March 27.—Papers were signed, sealed and delivered this evening by which the Seattle, Lake Shore & Eastern railway acquires control of the recently commenced Seattle & West Coast railroad, the line to be built from Seattle to the Canadian border, to join the Canadian Pacific system. The Lake Shore & Eastern road has strong financial backing in New York and work on the West Coast road will be resumed at once. Within ten days Thomas Earle & Co prominent contractors of the Northwest, will put a large force of men in the field and work will be pushed, so that trains will be running to Snohomish the 15th of next May From that point north grading and track laying will be hurried as fast as men and money can do it, and it is anticipated that the line will be finished to the boundary line by the close of the year Sufficient rails are now on hand to complete the road to Snohomish at once and enough have been ordered to lay track from that point on as fast as the contractors prepare the roadbed. A sufficient number of new locomotives and new cars have been ordered by the Lake Shore & Eastern road to operate the new line the moment rails are laid The completion of this road will afford Washington territory and the rest of the Pacific coast another all rail through connection with the East

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

RETURNED FROM AUSTRALIA.—Mr. J. H. Smith, of the firm of Hale & Smith, who left here last November for a visit to the Australian colonies, has returned. He visited Sydney, Melbourne and other cities in Australia, and also New Zealand. He says these colonies are prospering, and times are very lively there. He saw a lot sold on Collins street, Melbourne, for $10,000 a front foot. Mr. Smith has traveled extensively and is familiar with every portion of the United States, and he has come back here to stay. He already owns a large amount of property in the vicinity of this city, and since his return has purchased the interest of Mr. J. L. Wakefield in the tract they recently bought from the water company, at the northeast corner of the city. Mr Smith will erect a handsome residence on his property on top of Mt. Tabor this summer, to cost about $15,000. He has every confidence in the future of this city, and says that property, notwithstanding the recent advance, is cheaper here than in any other city which has the same prospects ahead of it.

HIGH PRICE FOR APPLES.—Apples are apples now, a box of good ones being worth as much as a box of oranges. There are but few apples left in this state. Yesterday four boxes of "Jonathans" brought in by a farmer, sold for $2 75 per box. This is a variety not common here, and is a good keeper, and orchardists should make a note of this fact. It is seldom that apples are imported here from California, but a day or two since twenty five boxes were sent up from San Francisco, which sold readily at $2 50 per box, and more could have been disposed of at the same price. They were Yellow Newtowns and Pearmains. The former were as juicy and fresh looking as when first picked, but the Pearmains were somewhat shriveled, though sound. Farmers should pay more attention to long keeping apples. A few hundred boxes of nice Yellow Newtowns now would buy frocks for all the children, and a dress for their mother beside.

NEW SALMON AND FRUIT CANNERY.—Messrs Everding & Farrel are fitting up a cannery at Five Mile creek, just above The Dalles, where salmon will be canned in the season and fruit and vegetables in the fall. The establishment is furnished with all modern appliances and will this year pack in all about 20,000 cases. Tomatoes sufficient for 10,000 cases have been contracted for. Seed corn has been imported from the East and given out to farmers as an experiment, and if it succeeds well a large lot of corn will be canned. There will be a lot of peas raised for canning there and plenty of pears, peaches and other fruits are grown in that section. Every one will be pleased to mark the growth of the fruit canning industry in this section.

THE POTATO MARKET.—New potatoes from California are in the market. The price of old potatoes has dropped to 50 cents a sack and quotations from San Francisco yesterday would not justify dealers here in paying more than 40 cents a sack for Garnet Chilis for shipment. There are a good many potatoes in the country which have been held for high prices. By thus holding them farmers will lose considerable, for potatoes were a dollar a sack not long since. However, there is lots of money in raising potatoes at 50 cents a sack. Farmers should not fail to plant plenty of them this season, for there are many people coming here this year and there is likely to be a good market for produce of all kinds.

DECLINED TO CONTRIBUTE.—Recently G. W. McCoy and Richard Clinton made arrangements to layout a baseball ground in Stephens addition to East Portland, and asked the Morrison Street Bridge Company to contribute $500 to the purpose, believing the bridge would reap a harvest in fares. Yesterday the directors of the bridge company met and declined to contribute $500 or any other sum. However the proposition is still open for discussion. The ground for the denial is that the proposed baseball park is a mile from the East Portland approach to the bridge, also a considerable distance beyond U street, to where the track for the bridge Company's railway has been laid.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVENTION.—This morning the democrats of Multnomah county will hold their county convention for the purpose of selecting delegates to the state convention, which meets at Pendleton next Tuesday, April 3. Last night a meeting of the delegates was held at Schneider's hall. What transpired is not known, as the doors were not open except to the elect. After adjournment one of the delegates informed an OREGONIAN reporter that there was nothing except an informal conference relative to the work of to-day, that everything was harmonious in a remarkable degree, and that a motion to adjourn was carried unanimously.

COURT OF DISCIPLINE.—The court of discipline of the First regiment held a meeting Monday evening, Lieut.-Col. O. Summers presiding, and tried sixty eight members on charges of absence from regimental and battalion drills. The court consists of Lieut.-Col. Summers, Maj. H. O. Johnson and Capt. L. O. Ferrar of Company G. At a previous session, two weeks ago, sixty three cases were tried and disposed of. Except when a valid excuse is given the offender is fined. If the fine is not paid within ten days the law provides that the matter shall be given in the hands of a justice of the peace. Happily no such action has yet been found necessary in the First regiment.

DIVORCE MATTERS.—The lawyer who drew up the papers in the divorce suit of Hattie Sykes vs Charles Sykes was greatly surprised when he arrived at his office yesterday and found, instead of a fat fee, a note from Hattie's husband to the effect that they had kissed and made up, and Mrs Sykes would leave town. In the suit of Ann M. Clayson vs. Edward Clayson, defendant's demurrer to the complaint was filed in the state circuit court yesterday. These parties have been married 20 or 24 years, and are sensible and intelligent people, and it is a pity they could not follow the example set by the couple above mentioned.

IN HONOR OF THE DEAD CHIEF JUSTICE.—Yesterday afternoon, the committee appointed by the bar of the United States circuit court, consisting of Col. W. H. Effinger, U. S. District Attorney McArthur, Judge E. D. Shattuck, Judge L. B. Stearns and Mr. Edward N. Deady, met and drafted appropriate resolutions upon the death of Chief Justice Waite, which they will present in court at 10 o'clock this morning. Brief remarks will be made by Judge Matthew P. Deady, Judge George H. Williams, Judge L. L. McArthur and others.

FUNERAL OF CONDUCTOR COLBURN.—The funeral of Conductor Abner K. Colburn took place from his late home in East Portland yesterday afternoon, under the auspices of the Knights Templar, Washington lodge, No. 46, A. F. & A. M. also participated. Rev. Mr. Staver officiated. The following gentlemen acted as pall-bearers: Capt. George Pease, B. F. Goodwin, L. C. Henrichsen, Dr. C. H. Raffety, D. C. McKercher and W. H. Harris. The body was buried in Lone Fir cemetery.

ODD FELLOWS CELEBRATION.—The Odd Fellows of Portland and East Portland have joined for the purpose of having a grand celebration on their sixty ninth anniversary, to consist of a grand parade oration and literary entertainment to occur on the 26th and 27th of April. The general committee of arrangements have secured a reduction on the O. R. & N., N. P. and the O. & C. railroads, for all Odd Fellows, their families and friends for that occasion, the same to be good from April 24 to April 30 full fare to Portland and one fifth fare return.

INSPECTION AND MUSTER.—The quarterly inspection and muster of the First regiment, O. N. G., took place at the regimental armory last evening. First there was a dress parade, after which Adjutant General Shofner reviewed the troops first in a column of companies and then in a column of divisions. The muster showed that there were seven field and staff and four non-commissioned officers present. The different companies had the following representation: A, 37; D, 4[illegible]; E, 42; G, 45; I, 56; K, 49. Total, [illegible]62.

LIFE SAVING DRILL.—The life saving crew at Fort Canby had a special drill a few days since to test the efficacy of the department. A life line was thrown 400 yards across a spar, where a man was stationed who hauled out the hawser, made it fast, and the life car was hauled up to him so that he was taken ashore as it were, in the remarkable short space of four minutes. Capt. Harris has got his crew down to perfection and can show splendid results whenever occasion offers.

FOR OMAHA.—Yesterday Mr. W. H. Holcomb, general manager of the O. R. & N. Co., received a telegram from President Adams of the Union Pacific, requesting his presence in Omaha. Mr. Holcomb left in the afternoon and will meet Mr. Adams there. The inference is that Mr. Adams desires to confer with the Oregon manager on matters connected with the road in general and the joint lease in particular. It is thought Mr. Holcomb will return within ten days.

PLEASED WITH THE SCHOOLS.—Mr. I. B. Gault, city superintendent of the public schools of Pueblo, Colorado, arrived yesterday and is at the St. Charles. During the day he visited the schools with City Superintendent Crawford and was highly pleased. The High school building was an agreeable surprise to him and he frankly said that it is the finest building of the kind he has ever seen. He will visit the Sound country before returning home.

THE NORTH BEACH ROAD.—Mr. F. E. Habersham, of the firm of Hawgood & Habersham, civil engineers, has gone to Ilwaco, W. T., to start work on the North Beach railroad, which is to run from Ilwaco to the weather beach, thence to a point on Shoalwater bay, below Oysterville. Everything is ready to commence work, the survey having been made three years ago. It is the intention to have the road finished to the beach in time for the summer travel.

TO BE DISBANDED.—Monday evening Col. C. F. Beebe commanding the First regiment, went to East Portland and questioned the members of Company F, who had assembled in their armory, regarding the disbandment of the company. As soon as he settles some little delinquencies with which certain members of the company will be charged he will issue an order formally disbanding the organization. It is probable that some of the members will join other companies.

EASTER.—People are in the habit of leaving orders for their Easter hats until almost the last day. In behalf of the young ladies in the store Messrs. Mellis & Co. would request intending purchasers to call as early in the week as possible.

SPRING STYLES.—Have you seen the spring styles in furniture and house furnishing goods? They are as varied as the colors in Joseph's coat and you can see them all (the styles) at G. Shindler & Co.'s, 166 First street.

FOR PARIS.—Mr. H. B. Litt will leave about June 15 for the gay capital of France to select extreme novelties. He will take orders for pattern cloaks for reliable customers, subject to approval.

SLIGHT COLLISION.—Near Pillar Rock last Sunday morning there was a collision between the Columbia and Idaho, both steamers being bound down the river, says the Astorian. The Idaho struck the Columbia about midships on the starboard side, breaking the railing and stanchions on that vessel, the hinges on the Columbia's deck ports raking some copper sheathing off the Idaho, the damage in each case being but a trifle.

FOR GRAY'S HARBOR.—Owing to the non-arrival of the machinery for the steamer Gen. Miles, the trip is postponed until the 31st.

FIRE IN A DWELLING.

THE ROOF OF J. C. MORELAND'S HOUSE BURNED THIS MORNING.

At 12:20 this morning an alarm of fire was turned in from box 32, at Twelfth and Jefferson, caused by fire in the dwelling of Hon. J. C. Moreland, No. 255 Eleventh street. It broke out under the roof in the center of the building and had gained considerable headway when discovered by one of the children who happened to waken. Mr. Moreland is at Salem on legal business. Before the engines arrived, the whole roof was involved, but the department, once on the ground, made short work of the fire. The house was drenched. Most of the down stairs furniture and the library were carried out before any water was thrown.

The loss and damage will be between $1000 and $1200. The property is insured in Clayton & Oliver's and F. V. Andrews's agencies—in what amount Mrs. Moreland could not say, but probably enough to cover the loss.

Their son, who has been very ill of typhoid fever was moved without exposure or discomfort. The fire was caused by a defective flue.

FATAL ACCIDENT

William Baesler, a teamster employed by the Portland Macadam & Paving Company, was killed on Seventeenth and Clay streets at 3 30 yesterday morning. He was taking a wagon load of rock down a steep hill, standing up on the load, and in descending he reached forward to fasten the brake, when he lost his footing and fell over, being caught between the hub and a bank which abuts on the road. In this position he was dragged about twenty feet and crushed, until finally the hind wheels passed over him, breaking his breast bones, killing him. Some men on the brow of the hill who had seen Baesler drive by standing up in his wagon, became alarmed when they saw the team stand still and the driver invisible. One of the men ran to the spot and found Baesler lying on the ground apparently dead. He summoned his companions and secured surgical aid for him but he was past all human help, for he died in less than half an hour after he had been picked up. During nearly all that time he was conscious, and appeared to be suffering greatly, without, however, making the fact known by speech.

The body was conveyed to the morgue, but Coroner DeLin decided that an inquest was not necessary. Baesler was a native of Germany, 32 years old, and unmarried.

THE NARROW GAUGE ROAD'S TAXES.

The Oregonian Railway Company, through its receiver, C. N. Scott, br[illegible] lately in the United States circuit cour[illegible] O. R. & N. Co, to compel the latter to pay [illegible] taxes levied on the roads and rolling stock of the former in Marion, Lane, Yamhill and Polk counties for 1887, now due and amounting to nearly $5000. The bill alleged that the receipts of the roads were not sufficient to pay the operating expenses and the taxes. The O. R. & N. Co. demurred on the ground that the taxes were not due till they became delinquent, on the first Monday in April, and that plaintiff could not maintain suit to require taxes for one year to be paid, but must sue to oblige the payment of all the taxes arising during the pendency of the lease which runs for ninety nine years.

The court overruled the demurrer and held that the taxes were due from the time the roll was put into the sheriff's hands for collection, and might be collected before they were technically delinquent, by sale of personal property, and that the party was not bound to apply for an order to pay taxes in the future, which were not yet assessed, and which it could not be known whether the O. R. & N. Co. would be called upon to pay or not.

A RICH STRIKE.

About 6 o'clock on Thursday evening last the miners in the lower tunnel of the Argentine struck the richest and most remarkable ore find yet discovered in this country and probably in any other. It consists of an apparently solid shoot, or, more properly, a bulkhead of gray copper extending from the hanging to the foot wall, a distance of eleven feet. On the foot wall it is concentrated for a distance of four feet into a solid mass of the consistency of black lead, and so soft and pliable as to be stripped away in sheets or torn off in large blocks, leaving surfaces as smooth and polished as glass. This extraordinary deposit is, of course, of astonishing richness, and the lowest possible estimate of its volume that can be made from the present development gives it at once the character of a veritable bonanza. The mine is now owned by the Argentine Mining Company, of Portland, and that city is to be congratulated again upon the great good fortune that seems to bless its every investment in the mining property of the Cœur d'Alene.

PORTLAND, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 28, 1888.

THE LEASE NEGOTIATION.

Referring to Mr Scott's telegram concerning the joint lease negotiation at New York, it may be said that the country will find some assurances in the news that the lease is "the conception and largely the work" of Mr Henry Villard. Confidence in his integrity and in his friendship to our interests is very strong here and there will be general disbelief that he has entered into an engagement designed to damage us. But Mr Villard, like other men, is fallible, and that in which he may see no danger may in fact involve the most serious consequences All men are blinded more or less by self interest and the proposed combination is avowedly for the protection of Mr Villard's investments But his interests are not our interests, and there are no relations between him and us which make it right for him to demand a sacrifice at our hands

The proposed modifications of the contract, as outlined in Mr Scott's telegram, mitigate but do not remove the legitimate objections to it. By the pledge concerning service and charges at the Columbia bar and on the rivers between Portland and Astoria, one of the important objections is removed but the non-committal talk concerning ore rates from Coeur d'Alene is not satisfactory. For the Columbia river basin the combination promises nothing save choice of markets without advantage from competition The promise in the matter of extensions south through Willow creek, into Eureka Flat and into the Clearwater country involves no benefit that is not already fairly in sight and sure to come whether the lease is confirmed or not.

In the absence of fuller information there is nothing to do but to wait. This appears to be the attitude of the Portland committee. They seem in fact to have been silenced but not convinced. It is possible that behind this negotiation there are purposes that we can as yet know nothing of. We can afford to wait with some sort of patience, assured by the knowledge that whatever may be the outcome we have in the law and in the legislative power to regulate railroads resources for our own protection. And, further, in the Columbia river we have the means finally of defeating any arrangement whose object or whose effects may be in violation of justice or detrimental to our general interests.

A VERY SUGGESTIVE STATEMENT

The facts concerning the finances of the state penitentiary, contained in a dispatch from Salem, printed yesterday, are worth more than passing notice. Out of $83,000 appropriated by the last legislature for keeping prisoners and the general expenses of the prison for the ensuing two years, $22,761 54 were expended the first year and $27,795 26 were expended up to March 30, 1888, (at which time Superintendent Clow was removed), leaving the sum of $5204 74 of that fund on which to run the penitentiary for nearly ten months to come. The total ordinary expenses of running the penitentiary for the year 1887 were $31 207 21 against $30 068 70 for the year 1886 Total expenditures, including extraordinary expenses for 1887, were $45,040 08

The motive of this statement, which, though coming from Superintendent Downing, is evidently inspired by Gov Pennoyer, is to explain and excuse the action of the latter in dismissing Mr Clow. Newspapers, both democratic and republican, in various parts of the state, have criticised the governor sharply, and he wishes, evidently, to show that the act was not without sufficient and reasonable cause The statement certainly looks bad for Mr Clow, but it is possible that he in turn may be able to make an explanation It has been reported that Mr Clow was not permitted during his incumbency to exercise the full powers of his office, but that from the beginning he was required to submit to executive dictation. If Mr Clow has any statement to make, the columns of THE OREGONIAN are open to him

At all events, the facts as exposed in the financial statement do not well support the premises of economy made for and by the democratic administration upon its assumption of office. But then Gov Pennoyer is not the first good man who has discovered that "the best-laid plans," etc.

GOOD ADVICE

The return of the engineers of the Santa Fe road to their work, the practical refusal of the Milwaukee & St Paul and the Northwestern roads to strike when their engineers decided to raise "the boycott" on "Q." freight is regarded by the Chicago Tribune as leaving the "Q" section of the Brotherhood in a sorry plight. The traffic of the road is in good shape the attempt on the part of the strikers to boycott the road brought them into conflict with the law and public sentiment, the engineers on the other roads recognized the force of law and the common duty of the railroad managers under the law to handle "Q." freight, and it has ceased to be a matter of serious consequence to the C B & Q. whether the strikers give up or continue the strike

The Tribune gives the strikers this excellent advice

As the matter now stands the strikers on the "Q" road if they have the intelligence with which they are credited must be aware that their strike is absolutely dead that they cannot influence any any other road to [illegible] handling its freight and that the engineers of the other roads however much they may sympathize with them are not disposed to let their sympathy run away with their sense or interfere with their work and wages They [illegible] nothing to fight for [illegible] to get back to [illegible] with the road [illegible] there

A leading [illegible] the question [illegible] We want a revision of the tariff [illegible] as the [illegible] protection of the manufacturing industries in order to foster a home market for [illegible] we produce We do not want the [illegible] consequent poverty of our neighbors in Canada We do not want the national debt paid too quickly we want it funded by [illegible] per cent 50 or 100 year bonds, thus giving our national banks a solid basis We want the surplus expended in improving our waterways, especially the great lake system establishing a permanent fund for such improvement, instead of giving it in piecemeal and necessarily hampering the plans for such work. We want a navy constructed that our nation may not be ashamed of, and harbor protection at New York, San Francisco and other important seaports We want railroads constructed into Mexico and South America, aided by government loans, We want a broad gauge Western man for president, who will grasp these important questions and handle them intelligently "

The Harrisburg Telegraph says that Col. Victor E. Piollet, in a recent speech in the Pennsylvania house of representatives, pictured the wrongs of the farmer in the matter of unjust taxation, and among other things said "Why, look at me Only the other day I had to pay school tax, and I haven't got a child in school" Col. Frank Mantor the next day, meeting Col Piollet, said

"I'm very glad to meet you Col. Piollet " said Col Mantor I was in the house last night and sat under the drippings of the sanctuary I listened to your speech and as I am a plain spoken man I want to tell you that I differ with you in one part of your argument You decried taxation without representation You said you paid school tax and hadn't a child at school Now I am almost in the same situation but I don't kick I pay a poor tax and I haven't a relative in the poor-house.

The river and harbor appropriation bill as reported by the committee provides a larger aggregate than any former bill. It is not likely that it will pass congress without material reductions. There is little danger this year that the president will veto the bill, since we are to have a national election next November.

ANOTHER ROAD FOR SEATTLE.

Indication of Speedy Connection with the Canadian Pacific.

SEATTLE, March 27.—Papers were signed sealed and delivered this evening by which the Seattle, Lake Shore & Eastern railway acquires control of the recently commenced Seattle & West Coast railroad, the line to be built from Seattle to the Canadian border, to join the Canadian Pacific system. The Lake Shore & Eastern road has strong financial backing in New York and work on the West Coast road will be resumed at once. Within ten days Thomas Earle & Co prominent contractors of the Northwest, will put a large force of men in the field and work will be pushed so that trains will be running to Snohomish the 15th of next May From that point north grading and track laying will be hurried as fast as men and money can do it, and it is anticipated that the line will be finished to the boundary line by the close of the year Sufficient rails are now on hand to complete the road to Snohomish at once and enough have been ordered to lay track from that point on as fast as the contractors prepare the roadbed, A sufficient number of new locomotives and new cars have been ordered by the Lake Shore & Eastern road to operate the new line the moment rails are laid The completion of the road will afford Washington territory and the rest of the Pacific coast another all rail through connection with the East

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL ON 4th PAGE.

RETURNED FROM AUSTRALIA.—Mr. J. H. Smith, of the firm of Hale & Smith, who left here last November for a visit to the Australian colonies, has returned. He visited Sydney, Melbourne and other cities in Australia, and also New Zealand. He says these colonies are prospering, and times are very lively there. He saw a lot sold on Collins street, Melbourne, for $10,000 a front foot. Mr. Smith has traveled extensively and is familiar with every portion of the United States, and he has come back here to stay. He already owns a large amount of property in the vicinity of this city, and since his return has purchased the interest of Mr. J. L. Wakefield in the tract they recently bought from the water company, at the northeast corner of the city. Mr. Smith will erect a handsome residence on his property on top of Mt. Tabor this summer, to cost about $15,000. He has every confidence in the future of this city, and says that property, notwithstanding the recent advance, is cheaper here than in any other city which has the same prospects ahead of it.

HIGH PRICE FOR APPLES.—Apples are apples now, a box of good ones being worth as much as a box of oranges. There are but few apples left in this state. Yesterday four boxes of "Jonathans" brought in by a farmer, sold for $3 75 per box. This is a variety not common here, and is a good keeper, and orchardists should make a note of this fact. It is seldom that apples are imported here from California, but a day or two since twenty-five boxes were sent up from San Francisco, which sold readily at $2 50 per box, and more could have been disposed of at the same price. They were Yellow Newtowns and Pearmains. The former were as juicy and fresh looking as when first picked, but the Pearmains were somewhat shriveled, though sound. Farmers should pay more attention to long-keeping apples. A few hundred boxes of nice Yellow Newtowns now would buy frocks for all the children, and a dress for their mother beside.

NEW SALMON AND FRUIT CANNERY.—Messrs. Everding & Farrell are fitting up a cannery at Five Mile creek, just above The Dalles, where salmon will be canned in the season and fruit and vegetables in the fall. The establishment is furnished with all modern appliances and will this year pack in all about 20,000 cases. Tomatoes sufficient for 11,000 cases have been contracted for. Seed corn has been imported from the East and given out to farmers as an experiment, and if it succeeds well a large lot of corn will be canned. There will be a lot of peas raised for canning there and plenty of pears, peaches and other fruits are grown in that section. Every one will be pleased to mark the growth of the fruit canning industry in this section.

THE POTATO MARKET.—New potatoes from California are in the market. The price of old potatoes has dropped to 50 cents a sack and quotations from San Francisco yesterday would not justify dealers here in paying more than 40 cents a sack for Garnet Chilis for shipment. There are a good many potatoes in the country which have been held for high prices. By thus holding them farmers will lose considerable, for potatoes were a dollar a sack not long since. However, there is lots of money in raising potatoes at 50 cents a sack. Farmers should not fail to plant plenty of them this season, for there are many people coming here this year and there is likely to be a good market for produce of all kinds.

DECLINED TO CONTRIBUTE.—Recently G. W. McCoy and Richard Clinton made arrangements to layout a baseball ground in Stephens addition to East Portland, and asked the Morrison Street Bridge Company to contribute $500 to the purpose, believing the bridge would reap a harvest in fares. Yesterday the directors of the bridge company met and declined to contribute $500 or any other sum. However the proposition is still open for discussion. The ground for the denial is that the proposed baseball park is a mile from the East Portland approach to the bridge; also a considerable distance beyond U street, to where the track for the bridge Company's railway has been laid.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVENTION.—This morning the democrats of Multnomah county will hold their county convention for the purpose of selecting delegates to the state convention, which meets at Pendleton next Tuesday, April 3. Last night a meeting of the delegates was held at Schneider's hall. What transpired is not known, as the doors were not open except to the elect. After adjournment one of the delegates informed an OREGONIAN reporter that there was nothing except an informal conference relative to the work of to-day; that everything was harmonious in a remarkable degree, and that a motion to adjourn was carried unanimously.

COURT OF DISCIPLINE.—The court of discipline of the First regiment held a meeting Monday evening, Lieut.-Col. O. Summers presiding, and tried sixty-eight members on charges of absence from regimental and battalion drills. The court consists of Lieut.-Col. Summers, Maj. H. C. Johnson and Capt. L. O. Farrar of Company G. At a previous session, two weeks ago, sixty-three cases were tried and disposed of. Except when a valid excuse is given the offender is fined. If the fine is not paid within ten days the law provides that the matter shall be given in the hands of a justice of the peace. Happily no such action has yet been found necessary in the First regiment.

DIVORCE MATTERS.—The lawyer who drew up the papers in the divorce suit of Hattie Sykes vs. Charles Sykes was greatly surprised when he arrived at his office yesterday and found, instead of a fat fee, a note from Hattie's husband to the effect that they had kissed and made up, and Mrs. Sykes would leave town. In the suit of Ann M. Clayson vs. Edward Clayson, defendant's demurrer to the complaint was filed in the state circuit court yesterday. These parties have been married for 24 years, and are sensible and intelligent people, and it is a pity they could not follow the example set by the couple above mentioned.

IN HONOR OF THE DEAD CHIEF JUSTICE.—Yesterday afternoon, the committee appointed by the bar of the United States circuit court, consisting of Col. W. H. Effinger, U. S. District Attorney McArthur, Judge E. D. Shattuck, Judge L. B. Stearns and Mr. Edward N. Deady, met and drafted appropriate resolutions upon the death of Chief Justice Waite, which they will present in court at 10 o'clock this morning. Brief remarks will be made by Judge Matthew P. Deady, Judge George H. Williams, Judge L. L. McArthur and others.

FUNERAL OF CONDUCTOR COLBURN.—The funeral of Conductor Abner K. Colburn took place from his late home in East Portland yesterday afternoon, under the auspices of the Knights Templar; Washington lodge, No. 46, A. F. & A. M. also participated. Rev. Mr. Staver officiated. The following gentlemen acted as pall-bearers: Capt. George Pease, B. F. Goodwin, L. C. Henrichsen, Dr. C. H. Raffety, D. C. McKercher and W. H. Harris. The body was buried in Lone Fir cemetery.

ODD FELLOWS CELEBRATION.—The Odd Fellows of Portland and East Portland have joined for the purpose of having a grand celebration on their sixty-ninth anniversary, to consist of a grand parade, oration and literary entertainment, to occur on the 26th and 27th of April. The general committee of arrangements have secured a reduction on the O. R. & N., N. P. and the O. & C. railroads, for all Odd Fellows, their families and friends for that occasion, the same to be good from April 24 to April 30; full fare to Portland and one-fifth fare return.

INSPECTION AND MUSTER.—The quarterly inspection and muster of the first regiment, O. N. G., took place at the regimental armory last evening. First there was a dress parade, after which Adjutant-General Shofner reviewed the troops, first in a column of companies and then in a column of divisions. The muster showed that there were seven field and staff and four non-commissioned officers present. The different companies had the following representation: A, 37; D, 41; E, 42; G, 45; I, 55; K, 40. Total, 262.

LIFE-SAVING DRILL.—The life saving crew at Fort Canby had a special drill a few days since to test the efficacy of the department. A life line was thrown 400 yards across a spar, where a man was stationed who hauled out the hawser, made it fast, and the life-car was hauled up to him so that he was taken ashore, as it were, in the remarkable short space of four minutes. Capt. Harris has got his crew down to perfection and can show splendid results whenever occasion offers.

FOR OMAHA.—Yesterday Mr. W. H. Holcomb, general manager of the O. R. & N. Co., received a telegram from President Adams of the Union Pacific, requesting his presence in Omaha. Mr. Holcomb left in the afternoon and will meet Mr. Adams there. The inference is that Mr. Adams desires to confer with the Oregon manager on matters connected with the road in general and the joint lease in particular. It is thought Mr. Holcomb will return within ten days.

PLEASED WITH THE SCHOOLS.—Mr. F. B. Gault, city superintendent of the public schools of Pueblo, Colorado, arrived yesterday and is at the the St. Charles. During the day he visited the schools with City Superintendent Crawford and was highly pleased. The High school building was an agreeable surprise to him and he frankly said that it is the finest building of the kind he has ever seen. He will visit the Sound country before returning home.

THE NORTH BEACH ROAD.—Mr. F. E. Habersham, of the firm of Hawgood & Habersham, civil engineers, has gone to Ilwaco, W. T., to start work on the North Beach railroad, which is to run from Ilwaco to the weather beach, thence to a point on Shoalwater bay, below Oysterville. Everything is ready to commence work, the survey having been made three years ago. It is the intention to have the road finished to the beach in time for the summer travel.

TO BE DISBANDED.—Monday evening Col. C. F. Beebe, commanding the First regiment, went to East Portland and questioned the members of Company F, who had assembled in their armory, regarding the disbandment of the company. As soon as he settles some little delinquencies with which certain members of the company will be charged he will issue an order formally disbanding the organization. It is probable that some of the members will join other companies.

EASTER.—People are in the habit of leaving orders for their Easter hats until almost the last day. In behalf of the young ladies in the store Messrs. Mellis & Co. would request intending purchasers to call as early in the week as possible.

SPRING STYLES.—Have you seen the spring styles in furniture and house furnishing goods? They are as varied as the colors in Joseph's coat, and you can see them all (the styles) at G. Shindler & Co.'s, 166 First street.

FOR PARIS.—Mr. H. B. Litt will leave about June 15 for the gay capital of France to select extreme novelties. He will take orders for pattern cloaks for reliable customers, subject to approval.

SLIGHT COLLISION.—Near Pillar Rock last Sunday morning there was a collision between the Columbia and Idaho, both steamers being bound down the river says the Astorian. The Idaho struck the Columbia about midships on the starboard side, breaking the railing and stanchions on that vessel, the hinges on the Columbia's deck ports raking some copper sheathing off the Idaho, the damage in each case being but a trifle.

FOR GRAY'S HARBOR.—Owing to the non-arrival of the machinery for the steamer Gen. Miles, the trip is postponed until the 31st.

FIRE IN A DWELLING.

THE ROOF OF J. C. MORELAND'S HOUSE BURNED THIS MORNING.

At 12:20 this morning an alarm of fire was turned in from box 32, at Twelfth and Jefferson, caused by fire in the dwelling of Hon. J. C. Moreland, No. 255 Eleventh street. It broke out under the roof in the center of the building and had gained considerable headway when discovered by one of the children who happened to waken. Mr. Moreland is at Salem on legal business. Before the engines arrived, the whole roof was involved, but the department, once on the ground, made short work of the fire. The house was drenched. Most of the down stairs furniture and the library were carried out before any water was thrown.

The loss and damage will be between $1000 and $1200. The property is insured in Clayton & Oliver's and F. V. Andrews's agencies—in what amount Mrs. Moreland could not say, but probably enough to cover the loss.

Their son, who has been very ill of typhoid fever, was moved without exposure or discomfort. The fire was caused by a defective flue.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

William Baesler, a teamster employed by the Portland Macadam & Paving Company, was killed on Seventeenth and Clay streets at 9.30 yesterday morning. He was taking a wagon load of rock down a steep hill, standing up on the load, and in descending he reached forward to fasten the brake, when he lost his footing and fell over, being caught between the hub and a bank which abuts on the road. In this position he was dragged about twenty feet and crushed, until finally the hind wheels passed over him, breaking his breast bones, killing him. Some men on the brow of the hill who had seen Baesler drive by standing up in his wagon, became alarmed when they saw the team stand still and the driver invisible. One of the men ran to the spot and found Baesler lying on the ground apparently dead. He summoned his companions and secured surgical aid for him, but he was past all human help, for he died in less than half an hour after he had been picked up. During nearly all that time he was conscious, and appeared to be suffering greatly, without, however, making the fact known by speech.

The body was conveyed to the morgue, but Coroner DeLin decided that an inquest was not necessary. Baesler was a native of Germany, 32 years old, and unmarried.

THE NARROW GAUGE ROAD'S TAXES.

The Oregonian Railway Company, through its receiver, C. N. Scott, brought [illegible] lately in the United States circuit court [illegible] O. R. & N. Co. to compel the latter to pay [illegible] levied on the roads and rolling stock of the former in Marion, Lane, Yamhill and Polk counties for 1887, now due and amounting to nearly $5000. The bill alleged that the receipts of the roads were not sufficient to pay the operating expenses and the taxes. The O. R. & N. Co. demurred on the ground that the taxes were not due till they became delinquent, on the first Monday in April, and that plaintiff could not maintain suit to require taxes for one year to be paid, but must sue to oblige the payment of all the taxes arising during the pendency of the lease, which runs for ninety-nine years.

The court overruled the demurrer and held that the taxes were due from the time the roll was put into the sheriff's hands for collection, and might be collected before they were technically delinquent, by sale of personal property, and that the party was not bound to apply for an order to pay taxes in the future, which were not yet assessed, and which it could not be known whether the O. R. & N. Co. would be called upon to pay or not.

A RICH STRIKE.

About 6 o'clock on Thursday evening last the miners in the lower tunnel of the Argentine struck the richest and most remarkable ore find yet discovered in this country and probably in any other. It consists of an apparently solid shoot, or, more properly, a bulkhead of gray copper extending from the hanging to the foot wall, a distance of eleven feet. On the foot wall it is concentrated for a distance of four feet into a solid mass of the consistency of black lead, and so soft and pliable as to be stripped away in sheets or torn off in large blocks, leaving surfaces as smooth and polished as glass. This extraordinary deposit is, of course, of astonishing richness, and the lowest possible estimate of its volume that can be made from the present development gives it at once the character of a veritable bonanza. The mine is now owned by the Argentine Mining Company, of Portland, and that city is to be congratulated again upon the great good fortune that seems to bless its every investment in the mining property of the Cœur d'Alene.

OREGON HUMANE SOCIETY.

President Eliot Reports Favorably on Its Effective Work.

A Tribute to Henry Bergh—Many Young Converts to the "Gospel of Kindness to Every Living Creature."—Officers Elected.

The annual meeting of the Oregon Humane Society was held in the chapel of the Unitarian church last evening, Rev. T. L. Eliot, president, in the chair.

The following annual report of the president was read:

PRESIDENT ELIOT'S REPORT.

"He who feels contempt for any living thing hath faculties which he hath never used."—Wordsworth.

It is the present custom of the Oregon Humane Society to hold two public meetings annually. The anniversary exercises, in which the scholars of the public schools take part, will be celebrated April 20. The present is the annual meeting, appointed by the constitution for the election of officers, reading of reports and the transaction of other business.

As president of the society I have to say that the regular meetings of the executive committee have been held, at each of which the quarterly report of special police agent, Capt. Felix Martin, has been received and discussed, and all measures taken for the promotion of humane treatment or prosecution of offenders. The salutary influence of having one officer of police detailed by the city to devote part of his time to the condition of animals, driven or in transit, is felt not only on our streets and docks, lines of car travel, etc., but far out into the country and along the railways and river routes. If fewer cases of warnings and arrests are reported, it may be fairly imputed to the fact that public opinion has expanded and cruelties of every kind to brute creatures are decreasing, although population, both of men and "brutes" is increasing.

The society regards with pride the work of humane education which it has inaugurated among the children of this and other communities. There is not a scholar in the public school who is not directly instructed in the duty of kindness to animals and every living thing—the harmless beast, bird or insect. We are informed that the influence of the 100 copies of the periodical called Our Dumb Animals distributed during the year among the schools by the society as minor prizes, has been very great. These monthly papers have entered 100 homes, and probably have reached, directly and indirectly, 1000 constant readers throughout the year. A community in which the attention of the rising generation is thus held and educated to sentiments and actions of mercy, cannot fail of reaping a wide harvest in the improved character of its citizens of every rank.

It is a fact of psychological interest that the first occasions arising in a child's life, when his action is comparatively unrestrained, are in his relations to domestic animals, birds and living things that the child can use or abuse. Let him play the tyrant over them and the type is early set in the brain and mind, through which, in the man or woman, caprice and heartlessness towards suffering of any kind, becomes prevalent. The criminal nature has often found the first field for development in the torture or wanton treatment of animals. On the other hand, the early impressions of humanity, encouraged by our societies, bands of mercy and prize readings, cannot fail to lessen the "inhumanities of man to man that make the whole world mourn."

I will remind the public that the usefulness of the society depends upon the fidelity, not only of its officers, but of its membership at large and the co-operation of business men, transportation companies, and especially of religious teachers, the schools and the press. The papers of the city are relied on to scatter information, and we acknowledge the generous hospitality extended us by the leading dailies of this city. The membership fee in the society is $1 annually, and the yearly renewal of this small sum, we trust will not be grudged by any citizen called on. The list should be extended until at least 500 names are secured. The executive committee has in contemplation work that depends upon an increased treasury. The services of the committee and officers are of course voluntary and every dollar contributed is expended directly in promoting the objects of the society. We also stand ready to attend to cases of cruelty to children, should our co-operation be needed, and scarcely a month passes without action in this direction. The headquarters of the society continues with our efficient and earnest corresponding secretary, Mr. W. T. Shanahan at No. 53 Third street.

In conclusion let me state that the interest in the work of humane societies is increasing in every part of our country. They are regarded as valuable auxiliaries to good government, health and public morals. The annual conventions attract wide attention and legislatures furnish our societies heartiest co operation, and in some states large sums are given as endowments or by will, to further their active work. And the whole world to-day pauses to honor the name, which for twenty-two years has stood at the head of this "gospel of kindness to every living creature"—the name and memory of Henry Bergh. It was through him chiefly that the truth has been vindicated in America that the brute creation has rights which every man is bound to respect, and that laws protecting animals are on the statute book of every state in the Union. This society joins its sister organizations throughout the land in honoring his name and deploring his loss to the cause of humanity.

CORRESPONDING SECRETARY'S REPORT.

To the President and Members of the Oregon Humane Society: I have the honor to submit herewith the annual report for the fiscal year ending March 27, 1888, giving a statement of the various cases reported to the society during the past year, all of which have been investigated and disposed of in accordance with the circumstances and evidence [illegible]:

[illegible] cruelly beaten	5
" overloaded	41
" worked with galled backs	9
" overdriven	40
" insufficiently shod	12
" worked in a sickly condition	12
[illegible] birds killed by boys	23
[illegible]stroying swallows' nests containing young	1
Small animals wantonly tortured	19

Total cases	215

Of these the offenders in thirteen of the above complaints were convicted and fined. Advice was given in 250 cases. Animals humanely killed, 12; visits to markets, 211; visits to slaughter houses, 38.

In conclusion with the above, we desire here to express our appreciation of the services rendered the society by officer Felix Martin, who has ever been prompt and faithful in the investigation of cases placed in his hands.

To our president, Rev. T. L. Eliot, our society is greatly indebted for much valuable time given to the cause, and for the wise counsel and genuine zeal which he has manifested in all departments of the work. Very respectfully submitted,

W. T. SHANAHAN.

ANNUAL ELECTION.

The officers of the society given below, were re-elected for the ensuing year: President, Rev. T. L. Eliot; vice-president, I. A. Macrum; recording secretary, George H. Himes; corresponding secretary, W. T. Shanahan; treasurer, James Steel.

The terms of Miss Ella C. Sabin and Mr. C. H. Woodard, of the executive committee having expired, they were re-elected.

The anniversary exercises will take place April 20. An interesting programme is in preparation for the occasion.

THE EAST SIDE.

What has become of the scheme to build a hotel on J street?

The street cars were running up and down Fifth street all day yesterday.

The democratic club will hold a meeting this evening in Hall & Stott's hall.

Mr. Joseph Burkhard, of this city, has invested $30,000 in South Portland property.

It is stated that the prohibitionists of East Portland will organize next Friday night.

Mr. A. H. Breyman, banker, of East Portland, is in Prineville, east of the mountains, on business.

A barge load of sand has been received at the incline at the foot of M street. It will be quickly used up on the new buildings about the city.

Elder J. W. Webb, of Salem, will speak on prohibition in East Portland Friday evening in the W. C. T. U. hall; in Albina, Monday, April 2; in Sellwood, Tuesday, April 3. He will also address the citizens of Mt. Tabor Thursday evening.

The grounds for the baseball players are being gotten in shape for the season in the southern part of the city. Yesterday the directors of the Willamette Bridge Company were considering the expediency of voting a subsidy to improve the grounds. It is not known what was done. When the season opens the grounds will draw a large crowd and the street car line will reap a large profit.

Quite a serious runaway happened out at Fairview Saturday evening. A young man named Bert Hoyt was driving home from the spelling school with a young lady, when a man named Townsend, on horseback, ran into Hoyt's team, causing them to run away. Hoyt and the young lady were both thrown out and considerably injured. The buggy could have been gathered up and carried home in a basket after the accident.

DRAGGED TO DEATH.

A few days ago, near Fossil, a young man named Nat McEwin met with a fearful death. He was leading a fractious horse by a rope which was attached to the bridle and was twisted round his wrist. While passing the corral the brute took fright at some posts that were resting in an upright position close by, and this annoyed McEwin, who jerked the animal pretty roughly, causing the horse to start forward with a sudden movement, which of course pulled McEwin off his feet and dashed him violently to the ground, fracturing his neck and shoulder. The horse then ran, dragging the deceased after him and kicking him desperately in the head and face. After careering over the ground for some time, the horse made for a gulch, and would have jumped across it but for a bush which detained the rope and the unfortunate man, and at once stopped the horse. McEwin was quite dead, and his face was horribly mutilated, the features being unrecognizable.

AN UNPLEASANT VISIT.

THE LEPERS AT THE POOR FARM, COMPLAINING OF HUNGER, COME TO TOWN.

Late last evening the whole band of lepers, some ten or twelve in number, who have quarters on the poor farm, stole away and came into town to levy contributions from their countrymen. The miserable creatures were corralled in the joss house by special policeman Nash, and an effort made to get the Chinese merchants to contribute enough to induce them to go back. They came in here during the Chinese New Year and were given a lot of money and provisions to go back. Last night they demanded $200. This the merchants refused to give, saying if they did the lepers would be back again next week and want more. It was proposed to give them a few sacks of rice, etc., and if they would not accept this to pack them in wagons and send them back.

Chief of Police Parrish ordered them to move on, but they refused, and as he had no place to stow them, conciliatory measures had to be resorted to. They complained that they never had enough food given them and they were always hungry; that one of their number died three days ago and had not yet been buried. The chief promised to send them a supply of food to-day and to lay their complaints of neglect before the county court for investigation. Under these promises the lepers started back to the poorhouse afoot, the chief and policeman Nash, giving them escort as far as Twelfth and Jefferson.

Several Chinese merchants late last night expressed willingness to contribute money, food and clothing to their hapless countrymen if assurance were given that they would be kept upon the farm. Some effective measures should be taken to prevent these lepers from making their periodical visits to the city.

PERSONAL.

Wm. Strey is confined to his home seriously ill.

Mr. Van B. DeLashmutt was in Chicago yesterday.

Joe D. Meyer returned yesterday from San Francisco

J. McGuire returned yesterday from a five weeks' trip to California and Texas. He saw some fine country and lively towns, but prefers Portland for an abiding place.

Mr. John R. Brigham, who has been East for the past three months, arrived home yesterday morning, four days and fifteen hours from New York. He came over the Erie, Rock Island and Short Line and made close connection, not waiting fifteen minutes anywhere. He says there is no snow this side of Omaha, but beyond there plenty. East of Chicago there is eighteen inches on the ground and the air is full of it. Mr. Brigham has had his everlasting satisfy of blizzards, and says he is not going East any more.

TO ADVERTISE OREGON.

The Board of Immigration Want $2500 a Month for that Purpose.

Urgent Reasons Set Forth for the Necessity of Active Measures to Secure Settlers—Form of Subscription—Etc.

Special meetings of the Oregon Immigration Board were held Saturday and Monday at the board rooms for the purpose of considering matters of importance relative to the publication and distribution of printed matter, the proper representation of our state in the railway centers of the East, the prosecution of the work of the board here and the best plan for raising the necessary funds therefor. After careful and mature deliberation, coupled with various and vigorous discussion of the question in all its aspects, the board unanimously adopted the form of subscription embodied below, and decided heartily to recommend the same to the general public with the following address:

PORTLAND, Oregon, March 26, 1888.

Fellow Citizens: We have deliberated carefully and, so far as in our power, comprehensively upon the question of the best and most practicable methods to be pursued in advertising the resources, advantages and prospects of our state and city. That there is need of such advertisement (if we are to have anything like a generous share of the prosperity of the coast) no one acquainted with the situation will deny. California at the south of us and Washington territory at the north are in the full enjoyment of the lucrative growth incident to large immigration. In comparison with these two neighbors, the influx to Oregon is astonishingly small. It is idle to conceal these facts. We are not getting the share of immigration to which our resources and superior advantages entitle us. The reason for this is easily discovered. It is expressed in five words: "We have not properly advertised." Portland, although the metropolis of the Northwest, and the most splendidly situated city as regards healthfulness, landscape beauty and advantageously as to commercial importance on the Pacific coast, is practically unknown throughout the Middle West and the East. The public mind there has been filled with accounts of Los Angeles, San Diego, Santa Barbara, Fresno, Puget sound, Tacoma, Seattle, Spokane Falls—with seldom if ever a hint of Portland or of Oregon. California and Washington territory are leading us in immigration to-day because they have flooded the country east of the Rockies with descriptive printed matter, and because their agents are actively at work among the people there talking up their respective localities. Portland must use the same or similar means if she expects to secure her rightful share of this general and prosperous development.

Believing the times to be especially ripe for the distribution of Oregon literature and the prosecution of vigorous immigration work, and believing further that the best interests of our state and city demand that this work should be begun now, we beg to submit for your signature the subjoined agreement. We hope the aggregate amount which you may subscribe will reach at least the sum of $2500 per month—the larger the better. This amount is necessary to do good work, but even a much larger sum can be used to excellent advantage.

Following is the form of agreement determined upon at our special meeting held on March 26, 1888, and unanimously adopted by vote of the board:

FORM OF SUBSCRIPTION PLEDGED.

We, the undersigned, in consideration of the benefits to be derived by us therefrom, and of the subscriptions of each other, do severally subscribe and agree to pay to the committee herein provided for, each and every month for a period of twelve months, so as to make twelve payments of said sums, the respective sums set opposite our respective signatures. The funds so subscribed and to be paid by us to be used in maintaining the board of immigration, now in existence in the city of Portland as appointed by the board of trade of said city, for said period, and in the procuring and distribution of printed matter giving information as to Portland as the metropolis of the great Northwest and the resources of the country tributary to said city, and in paying the salaries and expenses of men to distribute the same and to give verbal information.

The said fund shall be under the control of and disbursed by, and all subscriptions payable under this subscription shall be payable to a committee consisting of the aforesaid board of immigration and five of the subscribers hereto, not members of said board, which said five of the subscribers hereto, not members of said board, shall be chosen the subscribers hereto so soon as not less than by $1000 per month in separate subscriptions shall have been made to the fund herein provided for. The call for a meeting of the subscribers to be made by the president of the board of immigration.

And we do hereby authorize and empower the said committee to make all rules and regulations necessary for its own government and the transaction of the business of disbursing said fund, and to make all contracts necessary to carry into effect the objects of this subscription, and do severally agree to stand by and perform the same on our part to the extent of our several subscriptions hereto.

It being expressly stipulated that the rooms of the said board of immigration to be maintained by this fund shall, at all times during business hours, be open to the different real estate agents of this city to meet immigrants therein or to leave there for distribution their descriptive lists of property for sale. Provided that said committee shall have power to exclude any agent from said rooms for improper conduct therein, or on it appearing to them that he resorts to dishonest or disreputable practices in the carrying on of his business.

Monthly payments to begin as of the first day of April, 1888, and to be made on the first day of each month thereafter.

Trusting that the same will meet your hearty indorsement and support, and that you will give immediate response to the solicitors who will call upon you, we beg to subscribe ourselves. Your obedient servants,

CHAS. H. DODD,
H. W. CORBETT,
SOL HIRSCH,
D. D. OLIPHANT,
ELLIS G. HUGHES,
Commissioners Oregon Immigration Board.

GERMANY.

THE EMPRESS VICTORIA.

BERLIN, March 27.—Empress Victoria, replying to addresses presented to her by seventeen associations of which she is patroness, says her foremost and most sacred duty will be the care of her suffering husband. She is conscious of the task devolving upon her as queen and empress, and will accomplish it to the best of her ability. At the same time she is reminded that she has other social duties. The moral and intellectual education of women, sanitary condition of the laboring classes, and improvement of the facilities by which women may earn a livelihood, will constantly be before her. The noblest vocation of a princess, she says, is an untiring activity in the work of ameliorating the suffering of the laboring classes. Owing to the difficulty of her task she is doubtful whether she will succeed as well as her heart desires.

BERLIN NOTES.

BERLIN, March 27.—The North German Gazette suggests as a suitable monument to the late emperor, the erection of a magnificent ceremonial church fronted by an equestrian statue of Emperor William in the pleasure garden near the castle. It says that such an edifice would serve the purpose of a Pantheon.

The order of the Black Eagle has been conferred upon Prince Frederick of Hohenzollern.

The doctors have decided upon applying the massage treatment to the emperor's legs, as a substitute for walking, which the weather forbids.

The coronation of Emperor Frederick and Empress Victoria, as king and queen of Prussia, is expected to occur at Kœnigsburg in June.

A GERMAN VIEW OF THE FRENCH SITUATION.

BERLIN, March 27.—The newspapers here make sinister comments upon the elections in France Sunday to fill vacancies in the chamber of deputies when in the department of Bouches-du-Rhone Felix Pyat was returned, and in the department of Aisne Boulanger received a plurality. The North German Gazette says the votes of the French people tend more and more toward the dangerous alternative of reaction or revolution. The Kreuze Zeitung says: "The end is near, but it is hard to say who will give the present regime in France its deathblow."

COLUMBIA RIVER PILOTAGE.

Evidently the editor of the New York Maritime Register has taken the statements appearing in the Portland Journal of Commerce to be the whole truth, and has not read denials and comments by other and better authorities.

The following appeared in the Register of the 14th inst. and is based upon very extravagant charges made here:

It would appear from reports that the Columbia river pilot service is a good deal of a farce. It is stated that pilots take very little if any part in directing the course of the vessel under their charge, that the tug practically does both the towing and piloting of the ship, the pilot remaining on board the latter, which is a considerable distance in the rear of the tug. Furthermore, it is claimed that when vessels are laying off the bar they would be safer if not under the direction of a pilot, as the latter, by seeking to display his skill, often keeps the ship in dangerous situations. As long as any question exists respecting this matter, masters of vessels bound to the Columbia river would do well to bear these things in mind. In the case of a vessel recently lost there it is confidently stated that had the master instead of the pilot been navigating the vessel it would not have gone ashore. The entrance to the river is more or less dangerous, but with the exercise of greater caution fewer disasters would no doubt result. The pilots there are apparently very careless; but the desire of ship masters to get their vessels within the harbor as soon as possible may also have something to do with the number of disasters. Until the government shall have completed the improvement at the entrance to the Columbia river considerable caution will have to be exercised in taking vessels over the bar there if disaster is to be avoided hereafter.

REMARKABLE CURE

Of a Lady of a Tumor in the Stomach—Other Statements from Prominent People in Portland.

To the Editors of the Portland Papers—Sirs: Prior to calling on Drs. Darrin, one year ago, I had been under medical treatment with eminent physicians of San Francisco, trying to get relief from my sufferings, which was called by the doctors a tumor of the stomach, which affected my head, producing a constant pain for over twelve years, so that life became a burden to me, and my suffering almost unbearable. All of this time was trying everything that was recommended, as well as being under physicians' care a portion of the time, without any relief whatever, and growing worse. In this condition I consulted Drs. Darrin as to my case, and they told me they thought they could cure me. Now, after two months' electro-magnetic treatment, I consider myself quite cured, can rest well, eat well, am free from suffering. Words fail to express how thankful I am to the doctors for their skill and power in rescuing me from death's door, from suffering to one of health and ease. Will cheerfully recommend Drs. Darrin to the public generally, as their method of treatment will cure where all others fail. Can be referred to at my home, French Gulch, Shasta county, California.

MRS. S. A. HOOPER.

To the Portland Public:

Before calling on Dr. Darrin two months ago I had been afflicted with liver and kidney trouble, which had debilitated me so I could not attend to my duties as manager of the White House. General nervous debility and other troubles which I will gladly explain to any one, broke me down in health. I am now glad to state to all that Dr. Darrin's electro-magnetic treatment has restored me to health. I can be seen at the White House any day.

THOMAS H. SMITH.

Mr. H. O. Terry's Statement.

Mr. Editor: Since 1862 I have been seriously afflicted with stomach, kidney and liver troubles, nervousness and partial deafness. Through Dr. Darrin's treatment I am restored, and my deafness nearly cured. I can be referred to at the Occidental hotel, Portland, for two weeks. Have resided in Ellensburg, W. T., past ten years.

H. O. TERRY.
